

REF: HOD005

Issued on behalf of: Hodsock Priory

Date: 27th May 2010

EXCLUSIVE COMPETITION AT EXCLUSIVE WEDDING VENUE

Sunday 6th June heralds an exciting wedding fair at the spectacular Hodsock Priory located near Blyth, and the chance for would-be brides and grooms to win an amazing prize package that will help them achieve the wedding of their dreams!

A selection of the finest wedding businesses will showcase their services and products within the stunning priory, one of the finest and exclusive wedding venues in the area and a selection have donated prizes which all visitors to the wedding fair will have the opportunity to win.

Some of the partners which include; Paragon Film Studio, Fair Wedding Days, An Executive Affair, Paula Blake jewellery and Creative Images photography have created a prize package. The winner will receive an opportunity to discuss their wedding with a professional wedding planner, an exclusive pre wedding photo or video shoot in the grounds of Hodsock Priory, a ride in an Aston Martin for the groom and a Swarovski crystal necklace and bracelet for the bride.

The exhibitors, who all feature in the latest Hodsock Priory wedding brochure, will be on hand to provide would-be brides, grooms and their families with all the assistance that they may require to make sure their day is perfect. Furthermore, representatives from Hodsock Priory will be available to help them fully appreciate the magnificence of the priory as an exclusive wedding and reception venue.

“We are delighted with the response that our new wedding brochure generated and are proud to have so many high calibre business featured within its pages,” commented George Buchanan resident owner and General Manager Hodsock Priory. “By forming such a network of interlinked businesses we have created a great portfolio of services that we can personally recommend to our brides and grooms. By getting them together under one roof at an exclusive wedding fair, it seemed like the perfect way for us all to bring our brochure to life. The prizes donated by our partners represent a superb opportunity for a prospective bride and groom to experience some of the more luxury items associated with weddings today.”

George continued: “When you choose to have your wedding at Hodsock Priory we ensure you have a relaxed day in our beautiful home set within a stunning corner of Nottinghamshire.”

The Hodsock Priory wedding fair takes place on Sunday 6th June between 12pm and 4pm. Admission is free. Full terms and conditions for the competition will apply and details are available on the day. For further information visit www.hodsockpriory.com.

Picture caption: A magical day at Hodsock Priory

- ENDS -

Editor's Notes:

Hodsock Priory is a privately owned 700 acre estate located close to the borders of South Yorkshire and North Nottinghamshire. It has currently occupied and managed by the 9th generation of the resident Buchanan family.

It is famous for The Hodsock Snowdrops each February when the public are invited to witness the beautiful, picturesque setting of Hodsock.

Press Information from:

Helen Dillon-Pearson

Flourish Marketing & PR

t. 07912 493582

e. helen@flourishmarketingandpr.co.uk